

The Animals

Animal Groups

www.makemegenius.com

check MMG School Science Section

for free Science Videos

for Kids

Why do some animals live in groups?

Some animals live in groups for protection

Some animals live in groups in order to search for food

Some animals live together for protection.

Fish swim together in schools to warn each other of approaching danger.

Some animals live together for protection

Gazelles live together in a group called a harem.

Some animals live in specialized groups called colonies.

In a colony each animal has a specific job.

Animals in a colony communicate in a unique way.

Some animals live in specialized groups called colonies.

Bees live in a colony called a hive.

A hive has one queen bee.

The worker bees search for pollen

Some animals live in specialized groups called colonies

Honeybees communicate the location of food by doing a dance.

